Ways of Giving

Wayne Public Library welcomes gifts of cash or property, memorials, tributes, and bequests. All donations to Wayne Public Library are tax deductible.

Gifts of Cash/Property

Individuals making a donation of cash or property (including stocks, bonds, or real estate) have the joy of seeing their generous donation put to good use. Check with your financial advisor regarding the tax benefits of such gifts.

Memorial Donations

A memorial donation to Wayne Public Library can provide a lasting memorial for a friend, relative, or loved one. Donors may request specific titles (books, dvd's, cd's) or suggest categories of interest. A memorial plate will be placed in/on the item to honor the recipient and acknowledgement of the gift will also be sent upon request.

Tribute Donations

Looking for a unique way to pay tribute to a special occasion? A donation can be made to acknowledge a birthday, wedding, anniversary, or other special occasion. Donors may request specific titles (books, dvd's, cd's) or suggest categories of interest. An acknowledgement of the gift will be sent and a gift plate will be placed in/on the item.

Bequests

Your will or trust can designate that a specific amount be transferred as a gift to Wayne Public Library. The gift can be in the form of cash, stocks, bonds, or real estate. You may also give a percentage of your estate or give the residue after other terms of the will or trust have been satisfied. Check with your financial advisor regarding how such a designation may reduce your estate taxes.
